MINUTES OF THE 189TH ANNUAL MEETING of the
MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
June 10, 11, 12, 1988
South Hadley, Massachusetts

Opening worship of the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ began at 1:30 p.m. on Friday, June 10, 1988, in Abbey Chapel at Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Massachusetts. The Rev. Dr. Peggy Way was the preacher. The theme of the meeting was "On the Way to Wholeness" and the first worship centered around the healing of creation.

The first plenary session was called to order at 3:20 p.m. in Woolley Hall by Rev. Craig Whitcher, Moderator. After welcoming the delegates, the Moderator, in accordance with the Bylaws, announced his appointment of the Business Committee, consisting of Mrs. Nancy MacLeod, Chair; Mrs. Marian Irving; Mr. Donald Hazard; the Rev. William Baran; and Rev. Anne Perkins.

The Moderator announced his appointment of the Credentials Committee, consisting of Ms. Marion Robbins, Chair; Rev. James Riddle; and Mr. Donald Hazard. Ms. Robbins, for the committee, reported that there were 523 lay delegates, 266 United Church of Christ clergy, 10 ex officio, 3 Certified Christian Educators, 1 licensed minister, 138 visitors, and 45 others present for a total of 986 registered for the meeting.

The Moderator declared a quorum present. He announced his appointment of the ushers as tellers and reported that they were being coordinated by Rev. Robert Fenby and Rev. Robert MacLeod.

The Moderator introduced the Vice Moderator, Mrs. Nancy MacLeod; the Parliamentarian, Mr. Richard Osterberg, Esq.; the Timekeeper, Rev. William Baran; and the Recorder, Mrs. Joanne Bickford.

The Rev. William Baran, Chair of the Program Committee, was called upon to review the highlights of the Proposed Standing Rules. It was moved, seconded, and voted that "the 189th Annual Meeting adopts the Standing Rules as printed."

The Moderator called on Mr. Baran to present the Proposed Order of Time and Events. It was noted that the Order did not include time for oral reports from the Councils or from the General Synod delegates. It was also noted that the Order of Time and Events is a general order and that the Business Committee is responsible for scheduling specific items. It was moved, seconded, and voted that "the 189th Annual Meeting adopts the Proposed Order of Time and Events as printed."

The Rev. Dr. Alfred E. Williams, Minister and President, was called by the Moderator to introduce honorary delegates. It was moved, seconded, and voted that "the 189th Annual Meeting designates the following persons as honorary delegates with voice but not vote: the Rev. James Nash, Mr. William Wildey, the Rev. Gordon White, Ms. Barbara Schenk, the Rev. Dale Davis, Ms. Ruth Evans, the Rev. Paul Sherry, Ms. Diane Scott, Ms. Amy Miracle, the Rev. Peggy Way, the Rev. Harold Wilke, Ms. Susan Sanders, and the Rev. Robert Achtermann."

Dr. Williams then introduced the Rev. James Nash, outgoing Executive Director of the Massachusetts Council of Churches. It was moved, seconded, and voted by acclamation that "the 189th Annual Meeting expresses the thanks and gratitude of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ for the many years of leadership Dr. Nash has given to churches in his role as Executive Director of the Massachusetts Council of Churches and hopes that his future endeavors may be as rewarding and as fruitful."

Dr. Nash spoke briefly to the Annual Meeting, thanking the body for the resolution and urging continued support of the Massachusetts Council of Churches.

The Secretary of the Conference, Ms. Marion Robbins, was introduced by the Moderator. Delegates were asked to note her report in the pre-Conference materials. Mr. Charles Evans, Treasurer of the Conference, was introduced by the Moderator and gave his report.

The Moderator called upon Ms. Carol Downe, Chair of the Conference Nominating Committee. Ms. Downe noted that two slates had been prepared and the upcoming vote on the Conference structure would determine which slate would be used. She presented the slates as printed, adding two names to one slate. Ms. Downe invited further nominations.

The Rev. Joan Grindrod was introduced by the Moderator and explained the resolutions process. She presented the resolutions and recommendations as printed in the delegate materials and pointed out the locations for the resolution hearings.

The Moderator explained that in keeping with the theme of the Annual Meeting there would be Healing Moments at various times during the plenary sessions. During these Healing Moments the Rev. Janet Mackey and the Rev. James Riddle would celebrate some of the healing and wholeness programs that are being carried out by local churches. Delegates were invited to share their churches' programs with Ms. Mackey and Mr. Riddle.

A brief song break, led by the Rev. James Desmarais-Morse, followed the first Healing Moment.

The Moderator introduced the Chair of the Board of Directors, Mr. Daniel Warner, who reviewed the work of the Board of Directors since the mailing of the advance materials. Mr. Warner also moved the ratification of the proposed amendment to the United Church of Christ Constitution. Mrs. Ruth Evans, Vice Chair of the Executive Council, explained the proposed ratification. After discussion, it was moved, seconded, and voted that:

RATIFICATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT 88-AM-1	In accordance with paragraph 66 of the United Church of Christ Constitution, the Massachusetts Conference ratifies the amendment to paragraph 63 of the United Church of Christ Constitution to read as printed.

The Moderator called upon the Vice Moderator who made several announcements and then declared the meeting in recess for hearings until 7:30 p.m.

The evening Plenary Session was opened by the Vice Moderator who moderated the Speakouts.

The Moderator called upon Dr. Williams; Mr. Warner; Ms. Esther Haskell, Vice-Chair of the Board of Directors; and Ms. Ann Feaver, Chair of the Board's Goal Development and Resource Allocation Committee to give a presentation on the ministry and mission of the Conference.

After introductory remarks by Mr. Warner, Dr. Williams introduced the staff of the Conference. Mrs. Cora Brewer was recognized in celebration of her twenty-five years of work for the Conference. Dr. Williams also introduced three new Associate Conference Ministers: the Rev. Stephen Gray, Associate Conference Minister for Stewardship and Financial Development; the Rev. Ann Suzedell, Associate Conference Minister for the Western Area; and Mr. Ronald McLean, Associate Conference Minister for Social Responsibility and Mission Outreach. There was a moment of dedication for these three new members of the staff.

Ms. Feaver called attention to the new Mission Statement for the Conference. She explained that the goals that had been set related directly to specific portions of this Mission Statement.

Ms. Haskell presented an overview of the proposed structure and how it related to the Mission Statement and the goals of the Conference. The proposal would create commissions with well defined and specific tasks. Funds would be provided for specific strategies as assigned to commissions rather than for the commissions themselves.

Dr. Williams gave a moving address in which he presented a draft of his vision for the Massachusetts Conference in the next decade. He challenged the local churches of the Conference to study this vision and respond to it. Dr. Williams suggested that the congregations of the Conference might see themselves as a people who: 1) are participating in the reconstitution of their local congregation; 2) hear a prophetic voice; 3) invest in leadership; 4) are world church partners; 5) encourage the arts as a manifestation of the Spirit; and 6) care.

After a song break and a Healing Moment, Dr. Way led the assembly in worship. Mrs. MacLeod gave announcements and recessed the meeting at 9:45 p.m. until Saturday morning.

SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1988

After an opening song, led by Ms. Kathy Timpany, and Speakouts, the Vice Moderator called the meeting to order at 8:45 a.m. Dr. Way led the opening worship.

The Moderator called upon Ms. Grindrod for an update on the resolution process. Each resolution manager gave a brief report on the hearing that had been held and delegates were asked to complete the poll on the order of the resolutions.

Mr. Riddle and Ms. Mackey presented another Healing Moment.

Dr. Williams and Ms. Feaver were called upon by the Moderator to present further explanation of the proposed strategies for the Conference. These strategies fall into two categories, basic and challenge, with only the basic strategies being funded at this time. The strategies produce measurable results, are open to change and revision, and are limited by available resources. After their presentation, Dr. Williams, Ms. Feaver, Mr. Warner and Ms. Haskell entertained questions from the delegates.

The Vice Moderator introduced the Rev. J. Robert Achtermann, Executive Director of the UCC Council for Health and Human Service Ministries. Mr. Achtermann explained that the goals of the council are fourfold: 1) to serve the needs of its members; 2) to share program resources with Conferences, Associations, and local churches; 3) to co-ordinate with other agencies and instrumentalities; and 4) to work with other similar organizations. The talk concluded with a multi-media presentation.

Dr. Williams came forward and led a celebration of the hospital chaplains that were present.

After a song break, the Vice Moderator introduced the Rev. Dr. Paul H. Sherry, Executive Director of the Community Renewal Society, who gave the keynote address. Dr. Sherry gave a stirring talk on "Barriers to Wholeness." He emphasized that wholeness is "born in pain, transformed by vision, and nourished by hope."

After Dr. Sherry's address, Dr. Williams presented the names of those people who had been ordained within the past year. The Rev. Elliott Findley and his wife, Margaret, were called forward and recognized as celebrating his 50th year of ordination. Greetings were also sent by other 50 year ordinands, the Rev. Esther Clark and the Rev. W. Irving Monroe, Jr., who were unable to be present. Rev. Clark's husband, the Rev. William Clark, had also celebrated his 50th year of ordination before his death in May.

The Rev. Kenneth Powell invited delegates to attend afternoon workshops, all of which were related to the theme of health and wholeness. Following announcements, the Vice Moderator declared the Annual Meeting recessed until 3:30 p.m.

The afternoon plenary session was called to order by the Moderator, who reviewed the Standing Rules as they pertain to debate. Ms. Esther Haskell came forward to present the proposed bylaw changes with regard to structure. After some discussion, it was moved, seconded and voted that:

Mr. Warner, Chair of the Board of Directors announced that at its meeting the Board received with appreciation the "Considered Statement" and thanked the commission for its faithful work. The Board requested the staff assess ways in which the Statement and its recommendations can be incorporated into the program strategies of the Conference and requested its Evaluation Committee to oversee an evaluation of the Board's considered statement process. ■ Appendix A - Nash Resolution

WHEREAS, the Rev. Dr. James Nash has articulated a clear and consistent vision of the purposes and goals of the ecumenical movement; and

WHEREAS, he has understood that the call to Christian unity is for the sake of the world desperately in need of reconciliation; and

WHEREAS, this vision has enabled many members of the Massachusetts Conference to work more effectively in support of ecumenism at various levels of church life, including local councils of churches; and

WHEREAS, his deep commitment to social justice, his ethical perceptiveness, and his gift with words have shaped social policies on issues such as school desegregation, prison reform, welfare rights, the unionization of farmworkers, public aid to private and parochial schools, nuclear disarmament, and others too numerous to mention; and

WHEREAS, James Nash has been a respected participant in the MACUCC Ecumenical Commission; and WHEREAS, he has been a valued colleague to religious leaders and Conference staff during his twenty-one year tenure with the Massachusetts Council of Churches; and

WHEREAS, he has been a good friend to many MACUCC clergy and laity, and has made this friendship visible by attending numerous Annual Meetings, preaching to countless UCC congregations, speaking and resourcing many workshops, and participating in more committee meetings than even he will care to remember; therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting expresses the thanks and gratitude of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ for the many years of leadership Dr. Nash has given to churches in his role as Executive Director of the Massachusetts Council of Churches and hopes that his future endeavors may be as rewarding and as fruitful.

* Appendix B - Guidelines for Clergy Compensation 1989

The 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, commends the effort of the local churches in endeavoring to reach the goals recommended in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation 1988.

The 189th Annual meeting recommends:

- (1) that churches pay a minimum entry-level cash salary of $16,000 for a full-time pastor;
- (2) that churches not at the minimum salary work toward the minimum and also at improving C, D, and E, below;
- (3) that churches reimburse fully all professional expenses;
- (4) that churches already at or above the minimum and also providing for C through F give at least a cost-of-living increase and consider a merit increase. (An increase of about 2.5% per year of ordained ministry is recommended.)
- (5) that the work schedule of local pastors be no more than twelve units per week with no more than three evenings in any given week; in addition that pastors take off at least three consecutive days each month. 1

(PLEASE NOTE that these abbreviated guidelines are designed to be used in conjunction with the Guidelines for Clergy Compensation booklet from the Conference Office.)

A. CONSIDERATIONS FOR DETERMINING CLERGY COMPENSATION

While the ministry is a unique profession requiring special patterns of financial compensation, several overall factors can be considered in determining the level of support for clergy. The total compensation package could justly be comparable to the median income of the parish and perhaps be on a par with that of the local high school principal, showing consideration for years of service, special skills, and training and including annual cost-of-living increases. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy and the compensation package can be designated in a way to maximize the pastor's income. 2

B. CASH SALARY

The cash salary (not including housing and other expenses) ought to be no less than $16,000 for a full-time person in ordained ministry; less than $16,000 would indicate a person called to part-time work. A minister with 20 or more years of experience should receive a cash salary which is at least 50% greater than the minimum.

C. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE

The church should provide an amount equal to at least one-half the self-employment SS tax of 13.02%; such an allowance would be taxable income but would ease the burden of the big SS tax bite.

D.* HOUSING THAT PROVIDES:

- a) a furnishing allowance, all utilities, and an equity development plan for those living in a parsonage; OR
 - b) a housing allowance for those who want to rent or own their homes.

E. BENEFITS SHOULD INCLUDE

- 1. a pension plan, with a church contribution of 14% of salary basis, which is (a) at least 130% of cash salary plus any furnishings allowance for those living in a parsonage, or (b) cash salary plus housing allowance for those with such allowance;
- 2. a family protection plan, including disability insurance, which is an additional 1% of the base used for the annuity;
- 3. group life insurance which costs $50 per year;
- 4. medical and health insurance, plus dental care;
- 5. continuing education funding;
- 6. sabbatical education funding;
- 7. holiday and vacation time;
- 8. maternity/paternity paid leave (including adoption).

F. ALL PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES

The new tax law allows the deduction of business expenses only on Schedule A and any stated allowance for these items must be included in income. Most taxpayers no longer itemize since higher deductions are given to everyone. Therefore, it is important that churches reimburse, or pay directly, all of the costs which the pastor incurs for "doing business" for the church, so that the pastor is not paying income tax for church expense. Included are:

- 1. books and professional subscriptions;
- 2. professional memberships;
- 3. travel expenses and car allowance (church-owned car or travel reimbursement);
- 4. any other expenses incurred by the pastor and directly attributable to the exercise of ministry, such as childcare expenses.

- 1 A unit is a morning,, afternoon, or evening
 - 2 See Tax Planning for Clergy, Manfred Holck, Jr., Church Management Inc., P.O. Box 1625, Austin, TX 78767.
 - 3 According to the IRS, "housing" includes furnishings and the miscellaneous running expenses (everything except food and maid service) of a home, including appurtenances such as garage, sidewalks, and front and back yards.

*For detailed explanation, see Housing for Clergy, Manfred Holck, Jr., Church Management Inc., P.O. Box 1625, Austin, TX 78767.

* Appendix C - RESOLUTION ON AIDS AND HEALING

As people of God seeking to be faithful to Jesus Christ, and by the call and power of the Holy Spirit, we continue our Savior's ministry of healing and welcoming all persons, especially the afflicted, reviled, forgotten or lost as witnessed in the Scriptures (Mt. 4:23-24, 9:1-8, 20:29-34; Mk. 8:22-26; Lk. 5:17-26, 14:1-6; Jn. 5:1-18, 9:1-41; etc.). With the church in every place and time, we claim as our own Christ's caring and compassionate ministry of healing and reconciliation with all who suffer pain and disease (Mt 25). With the Apostolic Church, we affirm the healing power of prayer, laying on of hands, and anointing with oil (James 5:13-15). With the Church throughout the ages, we support the medical and hospice professions, and claim as joyful duty the Christian ministry of hospitality toward and advocacy on behalf of all persons in need; especially in our day those living with Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS).

WHEREAS all persons with AIDS, some of whom are members of our congregations, are created and loved by God; and

WHEREAS out of fear and/or ignorance many Christians ignore or ostracize persons with AIDS (babies, bisexuals, blood recipients, children, healthcare workers, hemophiliacs, heterosexuals, homosexuals, IV drug abusers) and

WHEREAS St. Paul reminds us that when one member of the Body of Christ suffers, all members suffer together (I Cor. 14:26); and

WHEREAS persons with AIDS are living longer with the disease than heretofore and are therefore more likely to experience discrimination in housing, employment, insurance practices and medical care; and

WHEREAS when persons understand through education the causes and means of preventing the spread of AIDS they are more likely to respond with care and concern toward those affected by the disease; and

WHEREAS the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ has a long-standing tradition of obedience to Christ's commands to tend to both the physical and spiritual needs of persons with care and compassion;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that as all of us live with AIDS, the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ reaffirms its support for persons with AIDS, their families, friends and caregivers, and all who suffer fear and anxiety about the disease; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ encourages the Council for Mission Outreach & Social Responsibility, or the commission that succeeds it, to continue its educational work in its churches with particular emphases on 1) helping people understand the causes and prevention of AIDS and 2) enabling church members to use their time and talents to help those who are in need; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ urges its churches to reach out to persons affected by AIDS through services of healing, justice work on behalf of those who suffer discrimination, and providing education about AIDS; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ encourages all persons to pray and to work that those who live with AIDS are freed from the fear and rejection of those who do not; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ prayerfully calls upon all its congregations to be places of hope, Christian hospitality and healing; and to seek out our brothers and sisters who are living alone and afraid, feeling alienated and abandoned to AIDS.

* Appendix D - RESOLUTION ON THE MASSACHUSETTS PRISON FURLOUGH PROGRAM

As the people of the church of Jesus Christ, we are called to heal the wounds of society. We are called to, "Bind up the broken hearted" (Is. 61:1) and "Help the weak" (I Thess 5:14). We believe that Jesus was called to "Proclaim release to the captives" and to "Set at liberty those who are oppressed" (Luke 4:18). Believing so, we are uneasy with the American system of incarceration, even while acknowledging its necessity.

Selective furloughs are an important part of the reintegration process which gradually prepares a prisoner to be reintroduced into society after an extended period of incarceration. In this process, prisoners are gradually given more responsibilities. Each stage of this process allows the prisoner the opportunity to prove that he or she is ready to take the next step towards freedom. There are hundreds of Massachusetts prisoners who desire an opportunity to participate in the furlough program and thus prove themselves capable of someday returning to society as free and responsible citizens. This opportunity has, until now, been open to all groups of prisoners.

But this year, the legislature has eliminated the first-degree lifer furlough program. Other restrictions on the furlough program in Massachusetts are threatened. The elimination of furloughs creates hopelessness and depression among those prisoners eligible to receive them. To unconditionally deny furloughs to a whole class or group of prisoners is to say that there is nothing any member of that class or group can do to convince society that he or she can ever be trusted again. As Christians, we are called to reconcile and forgive, not to create such impassable gulfs.

The success of the furlough program is evidenced by the fact that those prisoners who participate in the furlough program are significantly less likely to return to crime than those who have not had furloughs. In Massachusetts, 25% of parolees violate their parole and return to prison within one year, but for those who participated in the furlough program prior to parole, the rate is 12%. With 95% of all prisoners eventually returning to society, it is in the enlightened self-interest of every citizen of this commonwealth that the furlough not be arbitrarily reduced.

The overall escape rate from the furlough system is five escapes out of every 1000 furloughs granted; for those convicted of first-degree murder, the rate is one out of every 2000; for second-degree murder, it is three out of every 2000. Any escapes indicate that improvements may be in order in the design and administration of the program. But the extremely low number of escapes, and their distribution across all types of offenders, indicates that the system is largely successful and that the elimination of furloughs for a whole class or group of offenders is not the answer.

We acknowledge the deep wounds suffered by victims of violent crimes, and the need to help accomplish healing, reconciliation, and restored wholeness to their lives. But we must do so by gathering around victims as a community of support, not by permanently ostracizing groups of offenders.

Public safety is a goal of our life together as a people, but it is a goal that can never be totally realized. Over-zealous efforts on behalf of public safety, such as the present ones to restrict the possibility of furloughs, are by nature repressive, and arbitrary repression increases violence and crime rather than reducing them.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ opposes the ban on first-degree lifer furloughs, and calls for the reconsideration and redesign of that program; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Annual Meeting urges that all other furlough programs remain active and open to all classes of prisoners in Massachusetts; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this resolution be sent to all members of the General Court of Massachusetts and to Governor Michael Dukakis, and to major Massachusetts media.

■ Appendix E - RESOLUTION ON CONTINUING COMMITMENT TO EVANGELISM

The Present Situation

During the past five years the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ has become increasingly intentional in its work and commitment to the challenges of evangelism. Through the efforts of the Evangelism and Church Growth Task Team, in close cooperation with the Council for Local Church Life and Ministry, important new resources and programs have been initiated and developed throughout the Conference to encourage, assist and support local churches in the work of evangelism and church growth. Even though the five year goal of increasing church membership by two percent has not been reached, as voted by the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ at the 184th Annual Meeting on June 4, 1983, significant progress toward its achievement has been accomplished. During the five year period from 1982 to 1987, the decline in church membership has decreased from over seven percent in 1982 to 3/10ths of one percent in 1987!

Church growth, however, occurs in many ways and must be measured by means beyond mere statistics! Faithfulness promises fruitfulness that clearly reaches into every aspect of the church's life.

The Theological Call

When Jesus sought out the disciples he invited them to "Come, follow me." In the invitation, persons were led to a new life, participation in a community of believers which was new, and to walk in the world in a new way. In following, the disciples were taught the meaning of Jesus' message. They were then sent into the world as Jesus was sent: to teach, to preach and to heal. Evangelism is invitation! We in the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ are called to be persons who invite others to personal faith in Jesus Christ as Lord, to active membership in a Christian community of faith, and to a life of faith as Christ's disciples in the world!

The Commitment

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, gathered for its 189th Annual Meeting, calls upon our congregations to continue our commitment to achieving an overall membership growth goal of two percent within the following five years and thereby urges the Board of Directors to further develop whatever means are required to reach that initial goal, including the renewal and funding of an Evangelism and Church Growth Task Team.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that continuing programmatic support for evangelism and faithful growth be maintained by the Conference to support and assist local churches striving to respond to God's call through caring evangelism.

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that the Conference at its 189th Annual Meeting calls upon our congregations to support, by promotion and participation, the new "Strengthen the Church" all-church offering intended to support leadership and church development within the United Church of Christ; and recommends to the Board of Directors that all contributions retained by the Conference be used to provide professional staff leadership for local church development within the Massachusetts Conference.

Proposed by the Council for Local Church Life and Ministry

■ Appendix F - RESOLUTION ON A JUST PEACE CONFERENCE

WHEREAS we in the church have a biblical mandate to be seekers of peace and justice, to be instruments of God's Shalom; and

WHEREAS the United Church of Christ, through the actions of General Synods has designated peace and justice concerns to be priorities of the church at the national level;+

WHEREAS the Massachusetts Conference has been a leader in this movement of the denomination nationally, and has responded to the peace and justice priorities with commitments of human and material resources, including deploying part-time Area Just Peace Coordinators in the five geographic areas of the Conference to assist and to facilitate peace and justice ministries of local churches and associations; and

WHEREAS the Just Peace Ministries and programming of the Conference has provided educational, programmatic and action opportunities Conference-wide, in Associations and in local churches with the result that many churches in the Conference are accepting and acting on the call to be Peacemakers;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ affirms that we have been called by God to bring about justice and to make peace in our world, our communities, in our churches, and in our life together in the Massachusetts Conference, and we covenant together to be a Just Peace Conference.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting, as an expression of such a covenant, urges the Board of Directors of the Massachusetts Conference to continue and increase the commitment of resources for ministries of peace and justice; urges the program commissions and the leadership of the Conference to integrate concerns for peace and justice into all areas of the life of the Conference, with the goal that peace and justice concerns and issues are seen as being part of, and are expressed through the worship and spiritual life, the educational ministries, the calling out and stewardship of resources, the work of leadership development, evangelism, mission, community witness and advocacy of the Massachusetts Conference.

ALSO BE IT RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, in keeping with the covenant to be a Just Peace Conference, urges local churches and Associations to continue and expand their efforts to engage in peace and justice ministries and to engage in an intentional process of education and discussion about them that may lead local churches and Associations to adopt a Just Peace Covenant, as was voted at the 188th Annual Meeting.

Some of the funding for these just peace ministries will be provided by the Just Peace Appeal of which 25% is retained by the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ. Vigorous promotion of this appeal will be provided to local churches by the Massachusetts Conference to encourage their participation in the appeal.

+ (General Synod 8: Priority 3: Peace & U.S. Power; General Synod 13: voted the Peace Priority; General Synod 14: Resolution on Developing the UCC as a Peacemaking Church; commissioning of a Just Peace Theology working group; General Synod 15: Justice and Peace voted a Priority; Pronouncement Affirming the UCC as a Just Peace Church; etc.)

Proposed by the Council for Mission Outreach and Social Responsibility

■ Appendix G - RESOLUTION ON MIDDLE EAST

We, members of the Second Congregational Church of Holyoke, do believe that the Biblical demand for justice calls us to address this all-important Middle East problem, and as a member of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, do sincerely and heartily encourage and recommend to the 189th Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference that members assembled do receive and support the intent of this resolution.

Resolution

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ conveys to the appropriate national boards our concerns that a new sense of priority be given to this most crucial concern for both Peace and Justice in the Middle East, especially the conflict between Israel and Palestine.

Proposed by the Second Congregational UCC, Holyoke

* Appendix H - RESOLUTION ON CONSULTATION ON CHURCH UNION CONSENSUS STUDY

WHEREAS the United Church of Christ, in response to the prayer of Jesus that Christian believers "may all be one," (John 17:11) was born out of an ecumenical vision and engages in a variety of ecumenical cooperative ventures, including the current Consultation on Church Union's (COCU) "Quest of a Church of Christ Uniting,"

AND WHEREAS General Synod XVII in 1989 will be called upon to recognize, by formal action, in The COCU Consensus:

- "1) an expression, in the matters with which it deals, of the Apostolic faith, order, worship, and witness of the Church,
 - 2) an anticipation of the Church Uniting which the participating bodies, by the power of the Holy Spirit, wish to become, and
 - 3) a sufficient theological basis for the covenanting acts and the uniting process proposed at this time by the Consultation."
- (from The COCU Consensus, p. 3)

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ calls upon the churches of the Conference to study The COCU Consensus, either as a local church, or in cooperation with other UCC congregations, or preferably by inviting neighboring congregations of other denominations related to the Consultation on Church Union to join in occasions of fellowship and study of The COCU Consensus, and to record impressions and concerns, and to communicate the same to the Ecumenical Commission of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ for its use in helping delegates prepare for General Synod XVII.

* Appendix I - Resolution on the Announcement that Cleveland Has Been Selected as the Proposed Location for the National Offices of the United Church of Christ

WHEREAS the Site Selection Committee appointed by the Executive Council of the United Church of Christ has announced its choice of the location of the national headquarters and offices of the United Church of Christ to be Cleveland, Ohio; and

WHEREAS no specific data has been presented indicating what the costs will be of procuring office facilities in Cleveland, no figures suggesting comparative costs of housing for staff have been presented; and no indications have been presented suggesting how the move will benefit the United Church of Christ;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the 189th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference requests that the Site Selection Committee provide the following information to the Massachusetts Conference and its churches.

1. What is the dollar cost of moving the national offices to Cleveland, both immediate costs for moving and purchasing and setting up a facility, and long range costs of mortgage payments and other debt reduction and retirement costs?

2. What are the best estimates of the Committee as to the impact of this move, both positive and negative, on the life and ministry of the United Church of Christ as a national and world denomination resulting from the expenditure of financial and human resources demanded by this proposed move? That is, how will moving from New York to Cleveland reduce overall operating costs and so make more money available for the church's mission?
3. What is the judgement or opinion of the national staff of the United Church of Christ and its boards, instrumentalities and agencies - both executive staff and support staff - about the proposed move to Cleveland? What is the best estimate of how many staff persons the church will lose because of such a move, and what are the implications for the ongoing mission of the church if a significant number of key replacements must be recruited and incorporated?

Proposed by: the Rev. Robin Bickel, Church of the Pilgrimage, Plymouth; the Rev. David Dickerman, Grace Congregational Church, Framingham; the Rev. Lloyd Dunham, Christ Church United, Lowell; the Rev. George Hangen, Belleville Congregational Church, Newburyport; the Rev. Lois Happe, Marsh Chapel, Boston; the Rev.
